

The Gillian Rolton Youth Award- Return by Wednesday 8th November 2023

This award is given in memory of Gillian Rolton, a double gold medal winning Olympian who was such a great ambassador for our sport, and a leading figure in the development of the 5* Adelaide Equestrian Festival.

The aim of the young rider program is to identify committed, eager and motivated young riders in the sport of eventing, providing help and encouragement to develop their skills and potential.

The award is aimed at athletes aged up to and including aged 21 years (prior to 31st December 2023) years who demonstrate sportsmanship, horsemanship, performance, and contribution.

The award includes $500 and tickets for two people to attend the Adelaide Equestrian Festival (18th – 21st April 2024).

The Award highlights the importance of being more than just a winner at events or even the level of the horse / rider combination, it encourages you to develop your skills in communication, team work, resilience as well as showing improvement in riding.

Applications will be considered and ten riders will be notified promptly of their selection to attend.
