NOMINATION & SCORING CONDITIONS cont...

Nomination and scoring conditions for Open Height Series classes:

The six height classes (Topaz, Jade, Pearl, Opal, Sapphire, Diamond & Amateur) will run across three rounds. Each round is run as a standalone class, and points are awarded in every round, including the final. At the completion of Round 3, an overall Champion will be declared for each Series and awarded with a trophy rug and sash.

The Champion is the horse and rider combination that has accumulated the highest total points across all three rounds.

Points are awarded based on placing in each round, with later rounds carrying greater importance:

- Round 1: 100% (Base points starting at 40 for 1st)
- Round 2: 120% of Round 1 points
- Round 3: 150% of Round 1 points

POINTS ALLOCATION:

- Points are awarded to all competitors up to 20th place.
- Placings after 20th place receive 1 point.
- Eliminated combinations receive 0 points.
- Classes with fewer than 20 starters will have points awarded to all competitors, following the same scale.
- This scoring system applies to every round, including Round 3.

To be eligible for the series, you must enter all three classes. Combinations can only register for ONE full series, as eligibility is limited to winning ONE series. Riders may choose to enter individual height classes or all three in the series.

NOTE: When registering for a series through Equipe, please select all three classes in the series to qualify for the bulk discount.

EQUESTRIAN SOUTH AUSTRALIA SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

Applicable Equestrian Australia (EA) documents and requirements:

1. This Equestrian South Australia (ESA) event is governed by the Equestrian Australia (EA) General Regulations, applicable EA Sports Rules and all relevant EA Codes, policies, bylaws, rules and regulations. The EA Sports rules (i.e. the National Rules for each EA sport or discipline) and regulations may be accessed on the EA website "Discipline Rules & Regulations" page via the following link <http://www.equestrian.org.au/rules>. The EA Codes, Policies etc. may be accessed on the EA website "Policies & Bylaws" page via the following link <http://www.equestrian.org.au/policies>
2. To be eligible to participate in this event you must be a current ESA member or current member of an EA state branch. You must also satisfy any further membership or registration requirement (including those for any horse entered) referred to in the General Conditions of Entry for the event (Conditions of Entry) and individual disciplines.
3. The EA National Sports Rules applicable to the event are referred to in the Conditions of Entry.
4. All EA and ESA events are subject to the EA Code of Conduct (Code of Conduct). The Code of Conduct can be accessed on the EA website via the following link http://www.equestrian.org.au/sites/default/files/Equestrian\_Australia\_Code\_of\_Conduct.pdf
5. It is important that all members understand that the Code of Conduct also covers parents, guardians and spectators in respect of any activity held or sanctioned by ESA or an EA state branch. A key aim of the Code of Conduct is to respect the rights of everyone involved, to abide by all EA rules and requirements, to be fair, considerate, honest and professional in all aspects of the sport.
6. EA and ESA are committed to the protection and welfare of its members. The EA Member Protection Policy (MPP) can be accessed on its website via the following link http://www.equestrian.org.au/sites/default/files/Equestrian\_Australia\_Member\_Protection\_Policy\_updated05072017.pdf.
7. The EA Social Media Policy, which can be accessed via the following link, <http://www.equestrian.org.au/sites/default/files/Social%20Media%20Policy.pdf> should be read in conjunction with the MPP. These are important documents designed to ensure the safe and fair conduct of the event for everyone involved. They should be read, understood and complied with.
8. EA and ESA events are also subject to various codes and regulations designed to protect the horse, the welfare of which is paramount (Horse Welfare Provisions). Entrants and Competitors must familiarise themselves with the Horse Welfare Provisions and ensure that they are complied with. These Provisions may be accessed on the EA website via the following link <http://www.equestrian.org.au/policies>
9. Entrants and Competitors must familiarise themselves with the provisions of the EA documents referred to above (EA documents) and ensure that they comply with them.
10. By submitting an entry for the event you agree to comply with and be bound by the provisions of the EA documents, these Special Conditions and the Conditions of Entry.
11. If you are the parent or guardian of a participant or competitor under the age of 18 years, by submitting an entry for the event you consent to their participation in the event and undertake to the best of your ability to ensure that they understand and comply with the provisions of the EA documents, these Special Conditions and The Conditions of Entry.
12. If there is any conflict in the interpretation between the provisions of the General Regulations and any of the EA documents, these Special Conditions or the Conditions of Entry, the General Regulations will take precedence. If there is any conflict in the interpretation between the provisions of these Special Conditions and the Conditions of Entry, the Special Conditions will take precedence.
13. The Organising Committee for the event is referred to in the Conditions of Entry. The Organising Committee may at its absolute discretion, decline to receive any entry or return any fee without being liable for any compensation: General Regulation, Article 116.11. The Organising Committee's decision in relation to any entry for the event shall be final and binding.

Cancellation and Refund

1. ESA or the Organising Committee may cancel the event due to catastrophic conditions, disease or force majeure, or for any other reason at its absolute discretion.
2. If the event is cancelled after it has commenced there will be no refunds. If the event is cancelled prior to commencement the entrant may be entitled to a proportional refund of the entry fees paid. Any such refund will be determined at the absolute discretion of ESA, having regard to the direct or fixed costs for the event.
3. Entrants who have provided with their entry an email address and/or mobile phone number will be notified of event cancellation by email and/or text message.
4. The refund policy for withdrawal, scratching or change of an entry is set out in the Conditions of Entry.

Release and Indemnity

1. You acknowledge that horse riding, working with or being around horses can be dangerous. Horses can act in sudden and unpredictable ways, especially if frightened or hurt. As a consequence, there is a real risk of damage to property, serious injury or even death. In consideration of acceptance of your entry and participation in the event you agree to release and forever discharge EA, ESA, their servants and agents and the Organising Committee and each member thereof from all claims, proceedings or demands for any loss or damage howsoever arising from any accident or incident occurring at the event.
2. In consideration of acceptance of your entry and participation in the event, you agree to indemnify and keep indemnified EA, ESA, their servants and agents and the Organising Committee and each member thereof against all claims, proceedings or demands brought by or on behalf of any participant or competitor named in your entry form for any loss or damage howsoever arising from any accident or incident occurring at the event.

HORSE WELFARE & RISK MANAGEMENT

Welfare of the Horse

In all equestrian sports the horse must be considered paramount.

The well being of the horse shall be taken above the demands of the breeders, trainers, riders, owners, dealers, organisers, sponsors or officials.

All handling and veterinary treatment must ensure the health and welfare of the horse.

The highest standards of nutrition, health, sanitation and safety shall be encouraged and maintained at all times. Adequate provision must be made for ventilation, feeding, watering and maintaining a healthy environment during transportation. Emphasis should be placed on increasing education in training and equestrian practices and on promoting scientific studies in equine health.

In the interests of the horse, the fitness and competence of the rider shall be regarded as essential.

All riding and training methods must take account of the horse as a living entity and must not include any technique considered by the FEI/EA to be abusive.

The national and international Rules and Regulations in equestrian sport regarding the health and welfare of the horse must be adhered to not only during the national and international events, but also in the training.

Competition Rules and Regulations shall be continually reviewed to ensure such welfare.
